FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

PSC TO HOST AGRO ANNUAL CONFERENCE

LINCOLN, JULY 18, 2017— The Nebraska Public Service Commission (PSC) Grain Warehouse and Dealer Department will be hosting the 2017 Association of Grain Regulatory Officials \(AGRO\) annual conference, July 23-26, in Lincoln.

Attendees at the annual conference will receive the latest updates on changes in laws and rules and regulations affecting the nation's agricultural community. Sessions will be provided on current grain related topics to include crop and budge conditions and the general health of grain companies throughout the United States. Roundtable discussion and presentations will also be held on a variety of topics to include: specialty grain, economics of production agriculture, and the economics of the U.S. ethanol industry.

Nebraska Public Service Commission Chairman Tim Schram said, "We are excited to be hosting the 2017 AGRO annual conference and look forward to meeting and sharing important information with the AGRO association members and guests."

AGRO is a service organization dedicated to assisting state, federal and provincial governments, warehousemen and producers in the advancement of good relations. A voluntary organization, AGRO acts as a clearinghouse for the collection and dissemination of information regarding present and proposed legislation affecting the Agricultural Warehouse and Commodities Dealer laws and their administration.
